Our Mission:

- To promote the sensitive preservation and authentic restoration of the 1884 Sterling-Moorman House to usable condition, following the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation of Historic Buildings.
- To establish a living history educational program where Cheney's history is honored and promoted to enrich the lives of Cheney citizens and visitors.
- To develop program partnerships with other historical, educational and governmental groups to promote community involvement with the history of Cheney.
- To administer the Sterling-Moorman House, promoting a contemporary use which respects the quality construction and craftsmanship that was held by the original builder. To the greatest extent possible, interior finishes, furnishings and landscaping should express the building's pre-World War I character and heritage, while providing a clean, interesting and hospitable site for activities which are consistent with the scale, character and historic integrity of the building.
- To accept donations, solicit and raise money for the foregoing purposes. The Sterling-Moorman House Foundation will provide interested persons or businesses with an opportunity to make tax deductible bequests, memorial contributions and other gifts. The Sterling Moorman House Foundation will also seek grant funding to further the above-stated objectives.
